there are so many things we take for granted until we lose them, even if only temporarily

a job, a shoulder, a hip, an affordable mortgage, whatever...

at least we have each other to face the troubling times ahead...

Notes:

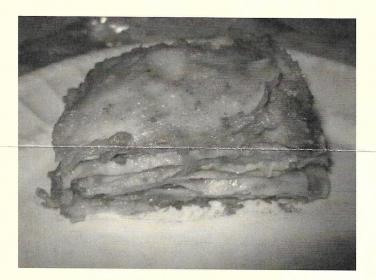

1. Dogs are not known for their spelling skills: "Will Werk 4 Fud" = "Will Work for Food."

2. "4 closed" = "foreclosed" = stolen back by the predatory lender.

3."4 sale" = "for sale," at rock bottom prices these days since the real estate bubble burst.
